NUMB. 3699

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1744.

Monday arriv'd a Mail from Flanders and another from Holland.

Petersburgh, January 18.

THE Great Duke has fixed the 31st of this Month for the Day of his Departure for Moscow. The Empress will not depart till the Day after. The Instructions requisite for Count Bestucheff and General Labas are actually preparing; and the former will set out in a few Days for Berlin, and the latter for Stockholm. It is whisper'd here, that this Court is not very well satisfied with the Rumour that about, as if an Accommodation was concluded between the Courts of Sweden and Denmark; and our Minister is said to have Orders to oppose it, in case it be not made on Terms agreeable to the System of this Court. The Czarina has been pleas'd to give the Widow of Privy-Councillor Brevern 4000 Rubles for her Funeral Expenses.

Copenhagen, February 4. Count Tessin has not signed the Convention, as was expected, with the Ministers of the Court; which was occasioned by an unforeseen Accident we are not at Liberty to mention. Since that, a Courier is arriv'd from Petersburgh, with Dispatches, which are said to be far from contributing to the settling of the Peace once more in a fair Train; and then, we must be content with a Cessation of Arms, which is, at present, very Religiously observed on both Sides.

Paris, January 25. There has been, ever since the beginning of this Month, a more than ordinary Hurry in the Court of the Chevalier de St. George, which, by degrees, attracted the whole Attention of this City. For the coming and going of several Couriers, we were not a little amazed, that his eldest Son did not appear, as usual, upon Publick Occasions. Such as took Liberty of asking the Meaning of this, were sometimes told that he had a Cold; at others, that he was to take the Air in the Country. But after continuing in Suspence for about a Fortnight, we were again surpris'd by Lord Dunbar's going in Ceremony to the Court on the 19th, in order to inform his Holiness, that the young Chevalier was safely arriv'd in France, and propos'd to make the Campaign in the Army of the Duke of Don Philip. The next Day some of the Cardinals went to wish the Chevalier Joy, particularly Cardinal Valenti-Gonzague, Secretary of State; who had a private Audience of him, which lasted upwards of two hours, but upon what Subject is not yet known.

Genoa, January 25. Admiral Mathews having left the Coast of Hies pretty suddenly, the Partizans of France Spain give out, that he was afraid to wait the Arrival of the Toulon Squadron. We have since received Information, that this was far enough from being the Case; and that the Admiral is actually before the Port, with his Fleet, at such a Distance, as that he may seem to insult the Fortifications, or the Port; and near enough to prevent any Thing from coming but by his Permission; a Thing so much the more incredible, as, from the very Figure and Situation of the Haven, it is not possible for above one Man of War to go out at a Time. As this was a Step not at all expected, as it entirely blocks up the combined Fleets, and the boldest Assertion of the Empire of the Sea that ever attempted either by Britain, or any other Maritime Power, we are not a little impatient to hear how the Court of Versailles will take it.

Genoa, January 28. On Sunday the 26th of this Month, the Cession of that Part of this State, which by the Treaty of Worms is yielded to the King of Sardinia, was performed with the greatest Solemnity; and her Majesty the Queen of Hungary, in order to replace a Part of Country than has been taken away, is said to add to the Dominions of this Duchy that Part of the Platania that is not given up to the King of Sardinia, all the Parmesan, and all the Mantuan. We have certain Intelligence from Switzerland, that the Detachment from the Army of Don Philip is greater than was expected, and that there arrive sometimes entire Guards of 30 Men.

Paris, Jan 30. We have at last a kind of Certainty in the Measures which the Count de Gages is resolv'd to pursue; all the heavy Baggage was sent away Yesterday Morning for the Frontiers of Naples, in consequence of a Courier that arriv'd from that Court the day before, and we expect to see the whole Army in full March To-morrow Morning; the rather, because we are satisfied that a great Convoy of Provisions is already arriv'd on the Neapolitan Frontiers, for the Use of that Army, which fully explains the Meaning of the Spanish General's late Order for destroying Provisions; since, as soon as he was sure of meeting with a sufficient Supply, it was the wisest Course he could take to put it out of the Power of the Austrians to follow him.

Vienna, February 1. General Baron de Roth set out some few Days ago from hence, charg'd, as it is said, with a Commission of great Importance; but of what Nature, or whether he is gone, remains an absolute Secret. The Ratifications of the late Treaty of Dresden, have been exchanged with great Solemnity, to the mutual Satisfaction of both Courts. Count Oliver Wallis assists regularly at all the Military Conferences, and it is now look'd upon as a Thing certain, that he is the Person made choice of by the Court, to replace the late Count Khevenhuller. A new Train of Artillery, together with a large Convoy of Ammunition, are to be sent speedily into Moravia; the Troops that are to escort it, having already received Orders to hold themselves ready to march on the first Notice.

Frankfort, February 9. His Imperial Majesty is still much indispos'd with the Gout. We have lately received Advice, that Field-Marshal Seckendorff has had his first Audience at the Court of Dresden, with all imaginable Marks of Esteem and Respect; so that we are in high Expectations of the Success of his Commission; the rather, because his Polish Majesty has been pleas'd to declare, that the Treaty lately concluded with the Court of Vienna, should not at all alter his Zeal and Affection for the Person and Cause of his Imperial Majesty; and, since that Time, her Imperial Majesty has received a Letter from her Sister, the Queen of Poland, conceived in the warmest and most tender Terms, all to the same Purpose. His Imperial Majesty has lately order'd his Minister to the Swiss Cantons, to remonstrate to them, that as the Male Line of the Austrian Family was entirely extinct, the Hereditary Alliance between the Helvetick Body and that Family subsisted at present, in as strong Terms as ever, with his Imperial Majesty, in Quality of the sole legal Successor of that House; and that therefore his Majesty flatter'd himself, that the Laudable Cantons would omit nothing on their Part, towards preserving a perfect Intelligence with the Imperial House of Bavaria and the Empire; and, in order thereto, would avoid granting any Troops to the declared Enemies of both.

I R E L A N D.

Dublin, January 31. This Day died his Grace the Lord Archesbishop of Cashell. The Commission for try'g the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Netterville arriv'd from England Yesterday.

H O M E P O R T S.

Falmouth, February 2. Wind S. E. Since my last arriv'd the Expedition Packet, Pellew, from Lisbon.

Plymouth, February 3. Yesterday Morning came back his Majesty's Ship the Kinsale, Capt. Young. Which Ship was Commodore of the Jamaica Convoy, and sail'd on Saturday last with the Storeships from hence. The above Commander seeing the French Fleet gave Chase to him, bore away for this Port, leaving the Biddeford to take Care of the Convoy. Also came back the Atlas, Cole, one of the Storeships, who was brought to by a French Man of War of 60 Guns, who order'd Capt. Cole to go down under the Stern of the Admiral, otherwise he should be oblig'd to fire at him; on which Capt. Cole bore down, and was order'd by the Admiral to follow him; but as Night came on, Capt. Cole bore away for this Port. The Fleet consisted of 21 Sail, mostly large Ships. The Lizard bore N. and by E. 23 Leagues distant from the Eddystone. This Day sail'd to the Eastward his Majesty's Ships Amelia, Dover, and Kinsale, and the Fly Sloop, with her Prize the Spanish Privateer N. S. del Rosario. Came in his Majesty's Ships the Squirrel, Phoenix, and Terror Bomb.

Dartmouth, February 3. Wind W. S. W. This Day sail'd the Peggy, Conyngham, from Maryland; the William, Gill, from Virginia; the Christian, Belcy, from Milford; and the Elizabeth, Brett, from Guernsey; all for London.

Weymouth, February 4. Wind N. N. E. Sail'd the Norton, Wall, the Charming Sukey, Best, the John and Elizabeth, Andrews, and the Two Sisters, Penny, all for London. Arriv'd the Pearl, Taylor, and the John and Mary, Elliot, both from London.

Pool, February 4. Sail'd the Industrious Bee, Durell, the Elizabeth, Mills, and the Thomas and Elizabeth, Henning, all for London; the Providence, Harnett, for Dover; the William and Mary, Linthorn, for Ostend; and the Sarah, Rolles, for Dunkirk. Came in the Thompson, Thompson, from London.

Deal, February 5. Wind E. Came down and remain the Constant Sally, Pile, for Gibraltar; and the Sarah, Holman, for Portsmouth.

A r r i v e d

At Leghorn, the Wiltshire, Norway. And, At Oporto, the Dargent, Nowell; both from London.
